LUIS APONTE SUMMARY

In March 2015, the Board was contacted by Artin Coloian ("Coloian"), attorney for Providence City Councilman Luis A. Aponte ("Aponte"), to resolve two campaign finance issues; 1) outstanding campaign finance late filing penalties of nearly $48,000 and 2) the personal use in 2014 of approximately $1,700 in campaign funds by Aponte campaign Treasurer Gwendolyn J. Buckley Andrade ("Andrade").

Andrade is campaign Treasurer for Providence City Councilman Aponte. Although she has no signatory authority on Aponte's campaign finance checking account, in an Affidavit she acknowledges routinely signing his name on checks written from his campaign account. Councilman Aponte has a dedicated campaign finance bank account, "Friends of Luis Aponte".

In May 2015, the Board received from Attorney Coloian bank records for "Friends of Luis Aponte" from Citizens Bank for the period January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014, an Affidavit from Treasurer Andrade [EXHIBIT A] and a list from Treasurer Andrade of personal expenses paid from campaign funds [EXHIBIT B].

- Item #10 in the Affidavit [EXHIBIT A] is contradicted by the list of personal expenses paid through the Friends of Luis Aponte bank account contract.

On May 18, 2015, Aponte reimbursed his campaign account ("Friends of Luis A. Aponte") $1,700 for personal expenditures paid through his campaign account [EXHIBIT C].

- On April 27, 2016, Aponte signed an Affidavit certifying that the source of funds used to reimburse his campaign account (05/18/2015) was a $2,500 withdrawal made on May 12, 2014 from his City Of Providence retirement account [EXHIBIT D, #1].
- On May 4, 2016, Director Thornton sent a request to Aponte to verify the timing of the withdrawal noted in the Affidavit. In response:
- On June 20, 2016, Aponte signed an Affidavit certifying that the source of funds used to reimburse his campaign account (05/18/2015) was a $4,000 withdrawal made on April 1, 2015 from his City Of Providence retirement account [EXHIBIT E, #A1].

The Board conducted a review of the Citizens Bank records for the "Friends of Luis Aponte" account. Because of discrepancies noted between the Citizens Bank statements and information contained in Aponte's campaign finance reports, the Board requested bank statements, copies of checks deposited and checks written from any bank into which campaign funds were deposited or from which checks were written from the period July 1, 2010 through December 31, 2013.

Due to Aponte's inability to produce bank records as noted, on July 23, 2015, the Board issued a subpoena to Admirals Bank, which delivered bank records for the period January 1, 2010 through December 31, 2013, to the Board on August 6, 2015. The Board conducted a review of the Admirals Bank records.

Admirals Bank reported a Beginning Cash Balance as of January 1, 2010 of $1,838.10; the campaign finance report filed for Aponte reported a Beginning Cash Balance as of January 1, 2010 of $10,484.42, resulting in a discrepancy of $8,646.32 between the bank balance and the campaign finance report. Although it is not unusual for there to be a discrepancy between bank statements and campaign finance reports filed with the Board because of a lag time between reporting, the sizeable discrepancy in this case is far beyond what could be accounted for as a lag time in reporting.

Items listed on "Aponte Summary of Reporting Differences" [EXHIBIT F] are discrepancies between what is reported on Aponte's bank statement and what is reported on his campaign finance report for the corresponding period. Where there is consistent reporting between what is reported on Aponte's bank statement and what is reported on his campaign finance report for the corresponding period, it is not noted on the summary report. The total net discrepancy is $13,942.29.

On February 18, 2016, Aponte reimbursed his campaign account ("Friends of Luis A. Aponte") $13,942.29 [EXHIBIT G], representing the total amount of the discrepancy.

- On April 27, 2016, Aponte signed an Affidavit certifying that the source of the funds to reimburse his campaign account (02/18/2016) was a $13,942.29 loan from his Treasurer/ex-wife Gwendolyn Buckley Andrade [EXHIBIT D, #2].
- On June 20, 2016, Aponte presented a Promissory Note executed between he and Gwendolyn Buckley Andrade governing the terms repayment [EXHIBIT H].

No source documentation or receipts exist from Aponte or Andrade to support the expenditures made except for what is stated in the Affidavit. In the absence of any source documentation or receipts the audit was conducted using bank records.

On March 31, 2016, in response to a subpoena issued by the Board, Citizens Bank provided bank records for the personal bank account of Luis Aponte. The account was opened on August 6, 2010 and closed on November 20, 2014.

- An analysis of expenditures made from the Friends of Luis Aponte account and Luis Aponte's personal bank account at Citizens Bank was conducted [EXHIBIT I], which suggests that campaign funds were used for personal expenses, particularly during periods when there were insufficient funds in his personal bank account, and which coincides with his termination of employment at the end of 2013 from his $45,000/yr job at Urban League of RI.

Aponte had no personal bank account from November 21, 2014 through April 2, 2015.

In May 2016, in response to a request from Director Thornton, Aponte provided bank records from his personal account at Pawtucket Credit Union (PCU). The account was opened on April 3, 2015 and closed on October 5, 2015.

- An analysis of expenditures made from the Friends of Luis Aponte account and Luis Aponte's personal bank account at PCU was conducted [EXHIBIT J], which suggests that campaign funds were used for personal expenses, particularly during periods when there were insufficient funds in his personal bank account.

On April 27, 2016, Aponte signed an Affidavit certifying that he has had no personal bank account from the date he closed his account with PCU (10/5/2015) to the date of the Affidavit [EXHIBIT D, #3].

- On June 20, 2016, Aponte signed an Affidavit certifying that his pay from the City of Providence (council pay) is directly deposited into the PCU account held by Treasurer Andrade [EXHIBIT E, #A2], which was confirmed in statements reviewed by Director Thornton.

On June 20, 2016, Aponte signed an Affidavit certifying that he received no campaign cash contributions from January 1, 2010 through December 31, 2015 [EXHIBIT E, #A3]; that regular and numerous cash deposits into his personal bank accounts were believed to be from either borrowings from his City of Providence retirement account; checks received and cashed; or from checks provided by a former employer (Urban League of RI) that were cashed then deposited [EXHIBIT E, #A4]; and belief that there were only two incidents when campaign funds were deposited into his personal account [EXHIBIT E, #A7].

Past History:

On April 14, 2005, the Board of Elections was awarded a judgment of $14,082.00 in Superior Court on its complaint filed against Luis A. Aponte for delinquent filing of campaign finance reports and non-payment of late filing penalties.

On November 7, 2007, a Contempt Order was issued due to Aponte's failure to file the delinquent reports and pay late filing penalties.

On December 7, 2007, an Order on Supplementary Proceedings and Contempt Order was issued, amending the original judgment to include interest accrued ($4,049.22) and attorney fees ($1,631.25), for a total judgment of $19,762.77. Also ordered was the garnishment of wages from Aponte's employer, the City of Providence, in the amount of $250/mo until the judgment was paid.

The judgment was paid in full as of January 13, 2014, but additional late filing penalties of $47,916.00 have been assessed by the Board and are owing.
